Application

- 2 This regulation does not apply to Class C parks.

Division 2 — Permits

Removal of property and restoration of area

- 3 (1) Except as otherwise provided in a park use permit or resource use permit, every person shall, within the 30 day period following
- (a) the expiry or other termination of a park use permit or resource use permit, or
 - (b) receipt of a written order from a park officer,
- remove all personal property and dispose of all structures, improvements and works of any nature in a park, conservancy or recreation area and restore, repair or rehabilitate the area as nearly as possible to its natural condition, or restore, repair or rehabilitate the area to the satisfaction of the park officer issuing the order.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to structures, improvements and works that are the property of the Province.

(3) If a person fails to remove personal property or dispose of structures, improvements or works as required by subsection (1), a park officer may remove the personal property and dispose of the structures, improvements or works.

(4) If a person fails to restore, repair or rehabilitate an area as required by subsection (1), a park officer may restore, repair or rehabilitate the area as the park officer considers necessary.

(5) Any expense incurred by the Province under subsection (3) or (4) is a debt owing the Province by the person who failed to comply with subsection (1).

(6) A debt incurred under this section may be retained from any security which the Province requires to be maintained by a person as a condition of a park use permit or resource use permit.

(7) In the absence of a sufficient security under subsection (6) to extinguish a debt incurred under this section, the debt or remaining debt shall be recoverable at suit of the Province in any court of competent jurisdiction.

[am. B.C. Reg. 215/2006, Sch. s. 8.]

Permits for guiding required

4 No person shall act as a guide or offer services as a guide in a park, conservancy or recreation area without

(a) a valid park use permit or resource use permit issued for that purpose, and

(b) a licence or permit to guide if required by or under the Wildlife Act.
